From the Baronage

A missive from Their Excellencies of The Debatable Lands

Hello Debatable Lands! Salve Accolens!

The air is crisper and dusk is creeping its way up the clock. Autumn is upon us, and so too is the autumn of our tenure. This is our last missive to you, our people, as your Baron and Baroness. What a bittersweet time! However, we leave you in extremely capable hands. On December 16th, we will witness the Investiture of Prima and Violetta. Please reach out to them with any comments, concerns, or offers for them - especially award recommendations! - as Baronage, and any matters occurring Dec 16th or after. We have many thanks to say, but we will do so in the Winter Althing after we step down.

These last few months have been eventful in wonderful and terrible ways.

Pennsic was a triumph, and we'd like to thank all those who contributed to the Barony, Kingdom, and War. It was our pleasure to help celebrate all your triumphs at Pennsic. So many Debatable Landers have positions of all levels, and we are proud of you all! Thanks especially to all those who made the Baronial camp a true Pennsic home, particularly our Camp Reeve, Master Emrys hight Broom. Thank you, too, to all out retainers and helpers for our official business, especially our head retainer Lady Elinor.

Just after Pennsic we were wracked by tragedy, as we lost Master Gwilym o'r Tair Afon and Lord Ronan O'Conaill. Our Barony and our lives are a bit paler for their loss. Gwilym helped to establish the archery community in the Western Region of the East that would eventually become Aethelmearc. Ronan was one of our current officers and archery marshal for the Barony. Both will be missed.

We lost our dear friend, Herald, Archery Marshal, and so much more, in Lord Ronan O'Conaill. He died unexpectedly and very young. His loss is felt deeply throughout the Barony and Kingdom, and our hearts are heavy indeed. His absence will echo for many, many years. Thank you to all those who came together in grief and support for his family and his Ladies, his Mentor and his closest friends. Thank you to Breheyres Gwendolyn for stepping in as Herald and Lord Niall with the support of the Skyguard (our archery guild) for running Archery practices. There will be a Baronial Social and memorial for Lord Ronan on Sunday, October 8th. Look online for details. We look forward to seeing you there in comfort and especially in Love, which was Ronan's gift to all those he encountered.

In the "wonderful" category of these past few months, we give our hearty congratulations to Lady Forveleth and Rob on welcoming their new baby, William! All are in good health. Vivant!

We will see you all at Agincourt on October 28th for our last full Baronial event as Baron and Baroness! It's at a new location, and shaping up to be quite the event, including all the normal martial activities. The food and feast are shaping up to be delectable, and the Arts and Sciences will be hopping, and so much more! See online for more details.

Looking forward to seeing you all this fall!

In Levitate et Caritate, and Cheers,

Baron Brandubh & Baroness Hilda

Meet Their Nextellencies

Violeta DeValencia and Aurelia Argentia Prima

Salve accolens!

First, we want to thank you again for your support during the election. All the candidates were so good, it never seemed like a sure thing to us that we might win. We're honored and humbled that you chose us to be your next baronage.

Many of you know about our previous ventures as vendors in and outside of the SCA. We'd like to take this opportunity to give you a more in-depth about ourselves, some of the things we like and dislike, and the ways you can best help us support the Barony.

First, some simple facts about us. Prima (PRE-ma, she/her) is Native American (Seneca & Cherokee, to be exact) and Welsh, but her first love in historical study is and will always be Rome. She loves everything about Rome, from the jewelry, the culture, the language, the ups and downs of its history, everything. Although she knows more about their military practices than their fashions, she appreciates the "fancy rectangle" approach to clothing and gladly takes advantage of their simple but elegant sense of fashion. Her persona, whose name translates to "Gold and Silver, Number One" is always ready to appreciate the fine works of others be they in the form of jewelry, clothing, food, or some other art form, and the hard work and practice it takes to achieve in the arts. Indeed, one of her favorite sayings is: "Kingdoms and Rulers come and go, but art lasts forever."

Her favorite motifs are rabbits and corvids, and her favorite colors are black, sapphire blue, and silver, but she likes purple, too. When it comes to food, Prima enjoys a wide variety of historical treats both commonplace and esoteric. Unfortunately, she was born with a food intolerance that prevents her from enjoying anything made with mammalian meats and fats (so, "red meat" but including pork). It's similar to the effects of the Lone Star Tick. Thankfully, gelatin and dairy are perfectly fine. Frankly, she wouldn't survive without cheese. Cheese is the best.

Violeta (Vee-O-leh-tAH, she/her) is of Irish descent but finds enjoyment in late period Spanish and Italian fashions and cultures. Her background in gemology and lapidary gives her an appreciation of historical gemstones, pearls, and all sorts of fancy accoutrements. There's so much beauty to be found in even the simplest of pearl drop earrings, if you know how to see it! Her first and greatest love is stories, and she takes tremendous joy in hearing stories from both history and from great feats and adventures from around the Known World. If Violeta deValencia is tricky for you to say, she also enjoys the English translation just as much: Violet of Valencia. Everyone is invited to use whichever they prefer.

Her favorite motifs are violets, coins, plants, and rocks/minerals/gems. Her favorite colors are purple and violet, but she also enjoys any sort of green. Although Violeta has no food allergies or intolerances per se, fresh uncooked tomatoes are unpalatable to her, which is really just torture because they look So Good. She can be a little picky about mushrooms and tries to limit her cheese intake, but generally also tries to have a spirit of exploration when it comes to foods.

When we step into office, Prima plans to take the title of Praetoria and Violeta will take the title of Baronessa. Together, we will be the Baronage. We appreciate the populace's patience and effort in adjusting to these terms; we understand there's decades and decades of habit behind "Baron and Baroness" and sometimes change takes time and practice. If you make a mistake, please don't make a big deal about it, just correct yourself and move on with what you were saying. This is the best practice for many such blunders, and we promise we'll be understanding as long as this practice is followed.

We've also spoken some in the past about accessibility issues being close to our hearts. As many of you already know, Prima has a severe balance disorder and is medically prohibited from driving a car. Some of you have seen her have a vertigo episode first hand. When this happens, she may need some assistance standing still until the episode passes, usually in a minute or so. Once it's passed, she's fine and can continue with what she was doing. Violeta thankfully has no physical limitations, but admittedly struggles with ADHD and its effects on her memory. She begs your patience with her as she works to remember names and things that need doing, and invites anyone who has business with the Baronage to never feel bad about poking at her to follow up on anything. During our time as the Baronage, we may occasionally ask for assistance with transportation, and having retainers will be extremely important to us.

We both believe that there are times for seriousness, and times for boisterous, silly fun. We look forward to taking this journey with you all, and growing the Barony together. We will work hard to help keep this Barony a place that strives to make good people feel welcome, and to spread the generosity that our community is known for far and wide. We want to be a shining beacon for the Known World, both when we're smiling and happy, or serious and somber. We can't believe our luck that we get to do all this with you.

Exchequer Report

The new exchequer is Hara Kikumatsu. I have experience from previous terms for this barony. I am also still regional exchequer for region 2. What that means is that I have to submit my reports to a different regional exchequer. That keeps all the checks and balances in place so my reports are properly reviewed.

Inventories are due in November: Need a list of items, location, and general condition for the following collections of barony property: larder, ironkey, fencing marshal, thrown marshal, archery marshal, gold key, and the baronage.

There are smaller tokens of office or other barony property held by Seneschal, Herald, Knight Marshal, A&S minister, Exchequer, Web Minister, Chatelaine, Chronicler.

Donations on behalf of Ronan: There were donations submitted to the barony on behalf of Ronan O'Conaill. There is agreement that these donations should be directed to activities that he loved. There will be further discussions on how this will work.

Event Announcement: Agincourt XV

*"This story shall the good man teach his son;
And Crispin Crispian shall ne'er go by,
From this day to the ending of the world,
But we in it shall be remembered—
We few, we happy few, we band of brothers;
For he to-day that sheds his blood with me
Shall be my brother; be he ne'er so vile,
This day shall gentle his condition;
And gentlemen in England now a-bed
Shall think themselves accurs'd they were not here,
And hold their manhoods cheap whiles any speaks
That fought with us upon Saint Crispin's day."
