Barony Meetings:

March Barony Meeting – Please read the following note from the Seneschale regarding the March Barony Meeting:

Join the Barony on Wednesday night, March 27th for an evening of socialization and learning! Since it worked well last year, the format for March's meeting will be the same – quick announcements, then plenty of socialization, with short 10-ish minute presentations interspersed. This year, we'll be learning about tournaments!

Specifically, we'll learn about tournaments for non-combatants – ever wonder what to do with yourself during fighting? We'll show you! Possible presentations include: The Role of the Tournament Herald, Types of Tourneys, Fighting Primer for the Observer, Basics of Royal Protocol, and Simple Handwork Options. And we'll end the night with a special activity: "Ask a Knight/Don." Ever want to ask a Knight or Don questions about their fields but were too shy to ask? Now's your chance! We'll have a panel of Knights/Dons, and I'll be asking them questions submitted by you (anonymous is ok)! Email me with questions ahead of time, or just talk to me there.

The meeting will be held March 27th from 7PM to 9:30PM on CMU's campus in the University Center (off Forbes Ave) in the Peter/Wright/McKenna rooms (Second Floor). Parking is free in the garage that time of night (there's ticket validation, amount owed is $0). No garb required. Email seneschal@debatablelands.org if you need specific directions

May Barony Meeting – Sunday before Memorial Day, 1 pm, to be held at the Martial Activities site.

July Barony Meeting – 2nd or 3rd Sunday, 1 pm, to be held at the Martial Activities site.

Upcoming Events:

March 10th – 17th – Gulf Wars XXII, Kingdom of Gleann Abhann

March 23rd – The Golden Donnan Party: A Beating Jubilee Shire of Ballachlagan (Wheeling, WV)

March 30th – Festival of the Passing of the Ice Dragon, Barony of Rydderich Hael (Buffalo, NY)

A Letter from the Baron and Baroness

Unto the Good Populace of the Debatable Lands do Liam and Constance send greetings;

First, We would like to thank everyone that came out for the Artisan's Muster at Mr. Smalls Theater. We would again like to thank Countess Aidan and Lady Elss for teaching. Her Excellency hopes to continue these Musters on a monthly basis.

For those who will camp with the Barony at Pennsic, you can now pre-register, our camp name is "DebatableLands". When you have pre-registered, please send an e-mail to Baron@Debatablelands.org and let us know that you have pre-registered.

At Twelfth Night, We began to beat the drums of war. When the BMDL too the field on the first day of Pennsic last year We took the field with a Levee of 12 Heavy Fighters. By weeks end that Levee had grown to a unit of 54. The Barony has been challenged to help the Army grow, not just as Heavy Fighters but as Fencers, Archers, Throwers and Youth Fighters. When We return to the outdoor fighting practice site, we challenge all heavy fighters in the Barony to take on another martial form. Follow in the footsteps of Duke Malcolm, Duke Christopher, Countess Elena, Baron Alonzio and many others and join the fencers in the Army. His Excellency Liam has worked through the winter to become a fencer.

If you can not bear the fight on the field and have the ability to Throw or shoot archery, there are many good marshals in the barony to help you join the army. If you are not inclined to take the field at all, We are in need artisans to help make Kingdom Tabards, Banners and more regalia to show Æthelmearc's and the Barony's force on the field.

We are also looking forward to seeing many of you and our friends from around the Kingdom at the Iron Comet event. We hope to see many of you take part in the challenge. If you are not inclined to take part in the challenge, We invite you to join Her Excellency Constance in the Baroness' Bower. The Bower is a salon atmosphere where you can speak about SCA related events and work on art projects.

We hope to see you all soon

Baron Uilliam Mac-an-tSaoir and Baroness Constance Glyn Dwr

From the Seneschale:

Greetings my friends! And may much luck find you in chill month of March, especially those preparing for Gulf Wars and Ice Dragon! First, a big Hilda THANK YOU to those gentles that arranged the recent special activities: Baroness Constance for the well-received Artisans' Muster, Mistress Arianna and the Debatable Choir for the community service demo at Grace Manor, Lady Muirgheall for the Regional Archery Muster in Steltonwald, and Baroness Ariella and Baron Byron for the Regional Fighting Muster. You all serve in many ways, and you help make the cool stuff we do, amazing stuff we do. Thank you!

Another THANK YOU to Baron Langdon for serving a wonderful two-year term as our Baronial A&S Minister. And welcome to our new A&S Minister, Lord Ishiyama Gen'tarou Yori'ie. Vivant!

A note on social media: Our Barony does have two official presences in Social Media: Facebook and G+. These are intended to support the fostering of our community in the online world. However, they will not be used as the sole conduit for official announcements. All official announcements will appear here in the Althing and may also appear on our online mailing lists (see <http://www.debatablelands.org/links.html>). Also, our calendar is online at <http://www.debatablelands.org/calendar.html>. Announcements may be copied to our pages on Facebook and G+, but if you choose to not participate in the social media aspect of the Barony, you will not miss important Baronial announcements. And to that point, if you need to make an announcement, feel free to post on our Facebook page, but you need to also post to the email list, and official announcements need to be sent to our chronicler for inclusion in the Althing. Keep in mind, however, that when announcements are posted to both our email lists and social media, social media is often faster. Let me know if you have any questions about that.

As you may know, my term as Seneschal is up in February of 2014. Why am I saying this a year ahead of time? I'm looking for gentles who may be interested in training as my replacement. Let me know!

I hope everyone will consider joining us for March Barony Meeting on Wed, March 27th, at 7pm. See the announcement here in the Althing for details. We'll be socializing and learning about Tournaments. Why? I'm glad you asked! May Barony Meeting will be our first Baronial Tourney Day! More info later. It will be on Sunday, May 26th.

I will leave you with this thought: As I write, Their Highnesses of Æthelmearc are making decisions and preparing dockets for Their Courts during Their reign... have you written a letter of recommendation lately? Look around! Go through the names in the Dark Pages and Order of Precedence! What glaring omissions do you see? Write an award recommendation today! There's even a form online! <http://www.aethelmearc.org/onlineaward/>. And don't forget Baronial awards, too! <http://bmdlbandb.webs.com/awardrecommendation.htm>

As always, I love to have feedback about anything Barony. Don't hesitate to drop me a line if you'd like to talk.

In Levitate et Caritate
~Hilda, Seneschale

From the Comet Pursuivant:

Greetings from the Comet Pursuivant!

Heraldry is an integral part of many aspects of life within the SCA as a whole, from displays of arms to calling at tournaments and officiating in court. If you wish to learn more about any of these contact me and I will do my best to aid you in expanding your knowledge.

This March's Barony Meeting will be focusing on tournaments so that the populace may learn more about tournaments so that we can run a grand tournament to the greatest effect in May. As part of the March barony meeting I would like to involve those who have an interest in heraldry to try their hand at a brag, I would like to encourage both those experienced with this and those who have never tried it before and might not even know what a brag is to let me know if this interests you.

Jorundr hinn Rotinn

Comet PursuivantFrom the Captain of the Archers:

Greetings from the Captain of Archers!

Though the month of February is cold, our archers have been improving their skill as part of the Gwyntarian Winter Challenge. Members of our Barony are doing well, with 14 of the 121 scores submitted so far! Some notable achievements to date:

#1 Overall Score:	Brandubh O'Donngaile
#4 Overall Score:	Muirghean Gealbhain
#1 Horsebow Score:	Alime bint Yorgi
#2 Sighted Recurve Score:	Katheryn Tantzel
#1 Youth Score at 20 Yard Range:	Elizabeth Wilbur
#2 Youth Score at 20 Yard Range:	Robert MacEwin of Thornhill

On February 24th, the Canton of Steltonwald will be holding a regional archery muster at their indoor site (Beaver Valley Archery Club, 277 Rothart Dr. New Brighton, PA 15066) from 11:30am to 5pm. Come on out and add or improve your score!

Although it is still February, the outdoor season isn't far away! Our first outdoor practice is planned for April 7th, weather permitting. And the Iron Comet Challenge is on April 13th, followed by a regional muster on April 14th at the Castle of Byron & Ariella.

In Service,

Alaric

From the Webminister:

Greetings from your Webminister!

I have held the office of Webminister for almost four years, and my term will come to an end in April. As such, I am issuing a call for letters for anyone who might be interested in replacing me. The Webminister's job includes updating the Baronial web page with new events, court reports, editions of the Althing, and other news. Knowledge HTML is helpful.

If you're interested, send letters to me at webminister@debatablelands.org and to our seneschal at seneschal@debatablelands.org, before the April officer's meeting. Also feel free to contact me to find out more about what the job entails.

In service,

Cai o'r Llyn

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences:

Greetings artists, scientists, and craftspeople. As the new Minister of A&S for this Barony, I welcome the opportunity to serve you by getting to know more about what each of you is doing. Do you have a blog, journal or other public news feed about your SCA work? I'd love to subscribe. What are you researching? What are you making? Please let your minister know.

THL Ishiyama Gen'tarou Yori'ie

Vivat! Vivat! Vivat!

Cheers for all of the volunteers who help so that we all may play! With your assistance, the Rose Barn became a medieval festival for the day. If you were there and had a good time, it was all because of these efficient, helpful, wonderful volunteers:

LADY ABBATISSA DE BANNERBERI, kitchen magician extraordinaire, who effortlessly waved her wand and kept the kitchen fresh, clean, and organized, and who helped until the end with cleaning the kitchen and the hall;

LADY AIBELL INGEN CHERNACHAIN who provided amusements for our younger guests;

MASTER ALARIC MACCONNAL who came early and trolled everyone in, and who stayed late to play for the Ball with the rest of the Debatable Consort;

LADY ALIME BINT YORGI who opened the doors in the morning, helped throughout the day, and cleaned her way out the door at the end of the night;

BARONESS MISTRESS AMARYLLIS COLEMAN, who kindly came prepared to minister efficiently to the injured, of which thankfully there were none;

MISTRESS ARIANNA OF WYNTHROPE, first, hall decorator, and then, choir mistress, who led the Debatable Choir through their glorious performance;

LADY BUGGA OF THE DEBATABLE LANDS, the now-previous Baron's Bardic champion, who entertained the audience with her art as well as organized the many performers in this year's Bardic Champion's competition;

LORD CAI O'R LLYN, clearly under the spell of the music at the Twelfth Night Ball, who danced so well and with such joy that many were drawn along with him;

LADY ELIZABETH ARROWSMYTHE who ably organized the many, many items in the Auction of Desirable Things, tracked the bids, and efficiently sold everything;

LORD HRAFNA-ERLENDI INN RAUDI, by coming early, helped to direct the comings and goings of the many carriages, wagons, and horses that delivered their burdens and went off to the parking meadow;

LADY ISABEL FLEURETAN and THLORD KAMESHIMA ZENTAROU UMAKAI, who were relaxing from the events of the fall (their wedding!), instead not only ran the Gift Exchange with the humor and silliness required, BUT also opened the kitchen in the morning, worked there all day, and cleaned up everything that wasn't nailed down in the evening;

MISTRESS KRIS GILIBARI, organizer of the merchants, who added to the festivity of the day by selecting and inviting merchants to display and sell their wares;

MASTER MICHAEL ALEWRIGHT, Minister Extraordinaire of the Court of Misrule, who helped

Their Majesties enjoy Their very brief time on Their stolen thrones, and thanks also to those who appeared in the Fool's Court;

DOÑA SASHA GRAY for organizing the A&S Champion's competition, which showcased many of the Barony's fine artists;

LADY SUMAYYA AL GHAZIYYAH, my deputy, who cleared the Court of Fools out of the hall so that the Baron and Baroness could hold Their court in peace, tended to last-minute shopping, and otherwise kept her eagle eyes on everything;

THLORD URHO WALTTERINEN who ran the cookie competition with his usual organization and restraint (how did he not eat all the cookies?!), and also ran the first populace shoot so that everyone could declare their favorite!

Many thanks are also due to those of you who thoughtfully brought extra chairs and tables, who prepared and presented food of amazing and delicious variety, who helped our many newcomers feel at home and welcome, who joined in the fun of singing and dancing and making music, who ate cake in hope/fear of become the King or Queen of Misrule, who donated to the Auction of Valuable Stuff (either by bringing things to contribute or by forgetting things last year!), who shoveled snow or strewn salt, who generously donated food for those less fortunate, and as always, my most favorite-est people of all, those who helped clean, collect trash, and volunteered to take home leftovers at the end of the night!

To all of you, I say again, many, many thanks!

If I did not list someone by name or deed, please know that the fault is mine, but that everyone's assistance is most gratefully appreciated. Please let me know who has been omitted so that I may render thanks where it is due.

Yours in Service to the Barony,

Elss of Augsburg

Debatable Lands Twelfth Night Lost and Found

Here is a list of potential candidates for next year's Auction of Forgotten Stuff! These items were all left behind at the Rose Barn after the Debatable Lands Twelfth Night Celebration.

Oval wooden box with feast gear inside
Copper colored mug
8" wooden plate
1 dinner fork (probably went with one of the plates!)
Aethelmarc belt favor
Large wooden serving fork with carved elephant
Brithwen's 9" beige plastic plate
Please contact me via email or FB to arrange for your item to be reunited with you! I will be at Iron Comet if that is convenient for pick up.

Elss of Augsburg

Enhance Your Medieval Vocabulary!Aumbry

A cupboard designed to show off fine silver and pewter.

Barker

A worker of, and dealer in, leather.

Quintain

A dummy with a shield mounted on a post. Used in combat training.

Corrections and Clarification: In the January Althing, I neglected to attach the author of the poem in the "Largess from the Barony" section. A special thank you and an apology to Lady Cynewyn Æthelweardedohter.

Venison in a Sauce

by Lady Astridr Vigaskegg

While doing my research for the feast at Leihen Helvetia, I fell in love with this particular recipe from Das Kochbuch der Sabina Welserin. I was able to bring about ~10 gallons of venison (thanks, Dad!) to the feast, and I prepared this dish with no instructions aside from the original recipe itself. I've done my best to transcribe the process into approximate measurements, as "shake a handful or so of ____ over the large pan of ~4.5 gallons of venison until it looks decent" really doesn't help anyone reading this. My two bits of advice for this are: 1.) To get as much blood out of the venison as possible, brine it once or twice in the water/vinegar solution. 2.) Play around with the spices before you add it to the venison, if you're uncertain. As long as you keep the spices balanced, there's no wrong way to make this, so have fun with it!

Das Kochbuch der Sabina Welserin, 1553
7 To make a sauce in which to put a haunch of venison

Lard it well and roast it and make a good sauce for it. Take Reinfal and stir cherry syrup into it, and fry Lebkuchen in fat and chop good sweet apples, almonds, cloves, cinnamon sticks, ginger, currants, pepper and raisins and let it all cook together. When you want to serve it, then pour the sauce over it. It is also for marinating a boar's head. Then cook it in two parts water and one third vinegar. The head of a pig is also made in this manner.

Modern Recipe:

Venison
Apple cider vinegar
Water
1 c white wine
1/3 c cherry (or berry) juice concentrate
1/2 c apple cider vinegar
1 c water
2 large apples (or pears), sliced
5 whole cloves
3 small cinnamon sticks
1/4 tsp pepper
1 tsp ground ginger
1/2 c almond slivers
1/2 c currants (or dried cranberries)
1/2 c raisins
2 T butter
Lebkuchen crumbs*

Brine venison in a 1 part-salt water and 1 part-apple cider vinegar mixture for about an hour. Rinse the meat, then set into your roasting pan. Combine the wine, syrup concentrate, and vinegar with your spices and apples and pour over the venison. Cover and bake at 325°F for about 2 1/2 - 3 hours. Fry the Lebkuchen in butter, add to the sauce and drippings to thicken it.

*Note: Lebkuchen cookies are a type of gingerbread cookie made with cinnamon, cloves, cardamom, and ginger.

Rabbit and Apple Quiche

by Lady Astridr Vigaskegg

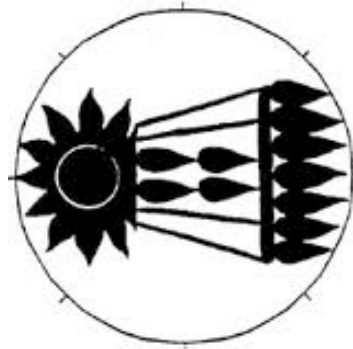

When I cooked this for my feast at White Hart XVI, I used one whole rabbit that had been boiled in herbs, then deboned, to cover 12 quiches. I can tell you that there wasn't much rabbit in each quiche, so however much you want to add to one pie is up to your discretion.

Pie crust
Rabbit meat, pre-cooked
1 apple
1 onion
2 Tbsp olive oil
White wine
Sugar
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup heavy cream
3 large eggs
Salt
Pepper

Preheat oven to 350°F. Prepare your pie crust. (Frozen, homemade.. however you choose!) Pull apart your rabbit meat and set it aside. Peel, core, and dice the apple and the onion. Use the oil to sautee the apple and onion, and add a dusting of sugar and a splash of white wine. Cook until apples and onions are soft, then add the rabbit meat. Add another small splash of wine and let cook for about 5 minutes, or just long enough to let the flavors start to mingle. Remove from heat and pour into the pie tin. Beat the eggs into the milk and cream, along with salt and pepper to taste, then pour into the pie tin. Bake for 30-35 min, until crust is golden brown and center of quiche is set. Let cool before serving.

Iron Comet 2013

The dust settles after the heated battle and only one rises victorious!

The Barony-Marche of Debatable Lands invites you to join them on April 13, 2013, for the Iron Comet competition. Like the Pentathalons of yore, you may test your skills at Archery, Thrown Weapons, Rapier, Heavy Combat, and only the fittest and finest shall prevail! A truly gifted combatant is also skilled at the Arts and Sciences. To win the Iron Comet, you will compete in at least four of five categories. Youth will also compete in their own division, and there will be martial activities for those not competing.

For those not engage in martial activities, join us in the Consort's gallery or the Baroness' Bower.

The theme of the event is Cherries, from the wonderfully creative Arts and Sciences entries to the sumptuous feast provided by our Elss of Augsburg. Lunch will be provided by Lord Bovi Farmaor.

The location of the event is the Pitcairn Monroeville Sportsman's Club located at 505 Mosside Boulevard, North Versailles, PA 15137. The site will be open from 9am to 9pm.

Site Fee (includes lunch): $11 for adults 18 or older, $5 for youth 6-17, children 5 and under free.

There will be a family cap of $32 for site fee only. Feast seats are $8 per person (all ages) in addition to the site fee. The non-member surcharge of $5.00 applies to adults 18+, which you may either include in the reservation or pay at the door. The feast is limited to 64 seats, so please make your reservations as soon as possible. Reservations can be made with Mistress Hilderun Hugelmann (Krista Cogan 3815 Baytree St, Pittsburgh, PA 15214 (412) 606-6258). Make checks payable to SCA, Inc. - BMDL. Please include full names of all gentles on the reservation.

For directions, details on the schedule, menu, and other information, see http://debatablelands.org/events/iron_comet/.

If there are any questions, please contact the Autocrat Elizabeth Arrowsmyth (Elizabeth Hogue 40 Union Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15202 (412) 999-8352 or ashearaatid@gmail.com) or the Deputy Autocrat Lord Jorundr hinn Rotinn (Tim Cogan (724) 777-5554 or shinigamikirin@gmail.com).
