Hello Debatable Lands! Salve Accolens!

With the cooling weather comes the traditional Harvest Season. While we are still coping with the complexities of the modern world and how it affects our amazing hobby, let's remember the harvest. The crisp air, fireside laughter with friends, an abundance of yummy warm pies and soups and other foods. And there's nothing that feels quite like a warm smile and an open ear, too. Times are still a little rough - be kind to each other, and to yourself. We will, too!

We'd like to say a big THANK YOU to all the folks that made our first Barony Social Meeting in a long, long time a rousing success this September. It was lovely to see everyone! We're very much looking forward to seeing you all at Agincourt in October as well!

So excited to hear that Their Majesties have announced that Agincourt is not only a Royal Progress, but also is hosting Their Kingdom Archery and Kingdom Thrown Weapons Championships!

Speaking of excellence in martial prowess, a BIG congratulations to our Stellar Tournament winners! We'll continue to hold them monthly. Check out the blog for the next dates, and the winners!

In Levitate et Caritate and Cheers
Baron Brandubh t Baroness Hilderun

A Arts & Science

Greetings from Ishiyama, your Minister of Arts and Sciences!

Arts and sciences continue in the Barony. Scriptorium and Sewing Circle continue to meet online every month. Those who are pining for Fiber Guild meetings are welcome to attend Sewing Circle. Woodworking Guild, Food Guild, and Brewers Guild are not having regular meetings, but arrangements can be made for activities or zoom calls if you need access to special equipment or instruction.

It was great to see people working on projects and showing off their work at the Barony Meeting! I hope everybody enjoyed Turlough and Fine's new vardo. Thank you to all the scribes, illuminators, and wordsmiths who contributed to the scrolls in court. Thank you to Forveleth for donating hand braided and beaded tokens to the Baronial largess stores. Thank you to the Debatable Choir and heralds for continuing to provide vocal support to court.

Baroness Constance will be running a Baroness' Bower activity at our upcoming Agincourt event. Please bring your projects in progress to share companionship and information while you work. The A&S competition that is normally held at this event is on hiatus.

Now is the time to start your planning for 12th Night! We don't know yet if we will have an in-person event or an online get-together, but this is traditionally the time for the Baronial A&S Champion to be chosen, so please be ready to display your work and research.

Join us on Discord! The admins of the "SCA-AEthelmearc-BaronyMarcheOfTheDebatableLands" server have already set up dedicated channels for almost two dozen specific areas of interest so you can ask questions, share your work, trade tips and tricks, or complain about how the supplies you need are still out of stock everywhere.

I have not been organizing formal meetings or practices, but I am often down at the Washington Boulevard site on Sundays during martial practices. If the weather is nice and you are looking for an excuse to spend some time outdoors with your friends, please join us.

As always, please contact the Baronial A&S Minister through email to "ansminister at debatablelands.org" at any time if you need assistance getting started or expanding your involvement with medieval arts, crafts, sciences, or research

Barony Marche of the Debatable Lands

Good day all!

I don't have much to report but I must apologize for the delay in the release of the Althing. Between health and having a new born it has been an incredibly busy time. That said, my term will be ending in January, please send all letters of intent to me and to Seneschal@debatablelands.org if you have interest in being the next Chronicler.

The next deadline for the Althing submissions is December 15th. Please have all reports and contact in by the end of the day.
